Spain Costa Brava

The Costa Brava is a region that encompasses a diversity of landscapes rarely equalled in Europe. Between the balmy beaches of the Mediterranean lie regions of lush meadowland, sun-beaten canyons of sinuously sculpted rock, swathes of dense pine and leaf forest, weirdly eroded limestone pinnacles and valleys so sheer and overgrown that scarcely a ray of light penetrates them.

Girona

ITINERARY

Day 1 Travel to Dover / Folkestone for the short sea ferry / shuttle crossing to Calais before continuing to our overnight half board accommodation in northern France.

Day 2 We continue to Spain, arriving at your chosen hotel in time for dinner.

Day 3 At leisure in resort. Time to relax and explore your new surroundings.

Day 4 This morning we have a tour to the market town of Girona, where you can wander around its narrow streets, its Jewish quarter and see the medieval cathedral before we continue to the picturesque village of Besalou.

Day 5 At leisure in resort.

Day 6 After breakfast we travel to Barcelona. In this cultural town, there is so much to see and do. Stroll down the famed La Ramblas, a tree-lined pedestrian boulevard packed with buskers, living statues, mime artists, street traders and a selection of cafes and bars. La Sagrada Familia is the life's work of Barcelona's favourite son, Antoni Gaudi, the magnificent spires of the unfinished cathedral imprint themselves boldly against the sky with swelling outlines inspired by the holy mountain Montserrat.

Day 7 For the Florida Park hotel a visit to Tossa de Mar, one of the most picturesque resorts on the Costa Brava.

For the Victoria hotel a visit to Cadaques, a fashionable resort with picturesque white washed houses.

Day 8 At leisure in resort.

Day 9 Travel to our overnight half board accommodation in northern France.

Day 10 Continue to Calais and complete the journey home. On one of the days at leisure we will try and include a half day excursion to a local market details to be advised during your stay.
