Experts in the field...

Drivers For coach holidays the driver can make or break your holiday experience, which is why our experienced tour drivers are selected for their wealth of knowledge, enthusiasm and professionalism. In order to uphold our driver standards we provide them with training in the highest levels of customer care ensuring they are the best around.

Coaches 2011 saw a huge investment in improving Edwards Coaches touring fleet with the addition of 9 high specification executive touring coaches. These improvements raise the average age of Edwards Coach Holidays executive fleet to 2007 ensuring a modern comfortable coach for your desired holiday.

The Holiday Experience...

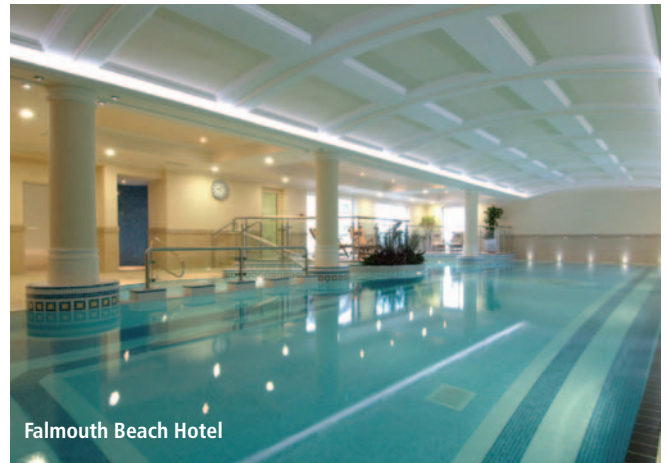

Throughout the year our experienced holidays team work tirelessly to carefully plan tours incorporating the perfect balance between our included excursions and free time for our passengers to explore their surroundings. The majority of our exciting excursions within this brochure are included within your holiday price, but please note this does not include entry fees unless otherwise stated.

Alongside our excursion programmes we look to further enhance your experience by planning picturesque and interesting routes, whilst taking into consideration your journey time.

Your Accommodation...

Hotels are a vital ingredient to creating an enjoyable holiday, and need to be selected to suit specific tour requirements. Here at Edwards Coach Holidays we carefully select each of our hotels with your tour in mind, ranging from large international resorts to small independent hotels. We aim to select the best locations without compromising on comfort, guaranteeing you a stay to treasure.

For 2012 we have added Diamond Class, a selection of high quality hotels, to our extensive range of accommodation these hotels have been chosen as they excel in their quality and comfort levels. Look out for the Diamond Class logo  next to certain hotels within this brochure.
