

Houses of Parliament and Cabinet War Rooms

The UK Parliament is one of the oldest representative assemblies in the world. The site of the Houses of Parliament is the Palace of Westminster, a royal palace and former residence of kings. Visitors will see the key areas of the estate, such as the Commons and Lords debating chambers and the Queen's Robing Room. The Cabinet War Rooms are a glimpse into the Second World War, and how Winston Churchill, the War Cabinet, and the Chiefs of Staff lived through, and survived the war. This warren of underground rooms below the Government Office Building north of Parliament Square, have been kept exactly as they were during the war, and feature original photos and Wartime memorabilia.

On the Trail of William and Kate

New Tour

From the Abbey to the Royal Jewellers, from the Prince's favourite nightclubs to the Royal Wedding kiss, learn all about their relationship, and Kate's fascinating life and family history as we take you on a 'Will & Kate Royal Wedding Walk'. Relive the unforgettable moment when the Royal couple walked down the aisle with a guided visit of Westminster Abbey. The Royal wedding procession also took in some of the capital's most prestigious sights including The Household Cavalry Museum, which sits within Horse Guards in Whitehall, one of the city's most iconic buildings and a living museum about real people doing a real job in a real place. The Goring Hotel is ideally located, adjacent to Buckingham Palace and within walking distance of the Royal parks. A hotel where every member of the team takes terrific pride in offering the highest levels of personal service, its no wonder then that Catherine Middleton chose to spend her pre-wedding night at the hotel.
