Yorkshire Dales and TV Tales

The Yorkshire Dales is thought by many to be the most beautiful and appealing region of Britain and the setting for many popular television and film locations. It is full of picture postcard towns, villages and stunning scenery. The countryside is made up of lush green valleys known as 'dales'. The fields and pastures are bounded by dry stone distinctive white limestone walls originally built by the sheep farmers, and which form a patchwork across the hillsides

ITINERARY

Day 1 South Wales travelling to Yorkshire and the Ramada Hotel Bradford/Leeds in Bingley.

Day 2 After a traditional English breakfast we head for Holmfirth, the set of the TV comedy, Last of the Summer Wine. Visit Sid's Café, Nora Batty's steps and even get a glimpse of her wrinkled stockings and learn more about Compo, Clegg and Foggy at the Last of the Summer Wine Exhibition.

Day 3 Start your day with a traditional full English breakfast before you set off to Herriot Country. We travel through the Yorkshire countryside stopping at the market towns of Harrogate, Ripon and Thirsk and explore the 'World of James Herriot Visitor Centre'. Return to the hotel for dinner followed by an evening of fun at our Race Night.

Day 4 After a hearty breakfast we visit Bradford's famous National Media Museum, the museum promotes an understanding and appreciation of photography, film, television and radio. Then travel a few short miles to Haworth, visit the Brontë Parsonage Museum and stroll down the famous cobbled streets. Enjoy one final dinner back at the hotel and complete your holiday by testing your knowledge at our Yorkshire TV, Film and Literature Quiz.

Day 5 Return to South Wales
