Hebridean Explorer New Tour

The Isle of Harris and Isle of Lewis are at the North West corner of the group of Islands known as the Outer Hebrides. Harris has a wide range of landscapes, all of which have their own charm and interest and on its west coast lie some of the most spectacular beaches of Britain. Lewis is steeped in history and culture, ranging back thousands of years. Ancient stone circles stand on the same land as modern Stornoway.

ITINERARY

- Day 1 Depart South Wales travelling to our first overnight's half board accommodation in Scotland.
- Day 2 Sit back and enjoy the scenery as we drive along the shores of Loch Lomond into the highlands and the mysterious and haunting Glen Coe to Fort William in the shadow of Ben Nevis. We then travel through the winding valley of Glenshiel via the well photographed Castle of Eileen Donan to Kyle of Lochalsh crossing the bridge to Skye and our overnight's half board accommodation.
- Day 3 After a leisurely breakfast we travel over the Cullin Hills to the ferry port at Uig and board the Caledonian MacBrayne ferry to Lochmaddy on North Uist. We then drive south to our overnight accommodation at the Dark Island hotel on the Isle of Benbecula.
- Day 4 Today we head north to the Isle of Lewis for our 2 nights half board accommodation. We pass the 'Castaway' island of Taransay as we travel through Harris a magical place of outstanding natural beauty with a stunning contrast of rocky barren hillsides, white sandy beaches and turquoise seas. Leaving Harris we climb steeply over the southern mountain range into Lewis passing the fiord-like Loch Seaforth contrasting with a vast moorland landscape covered in lochs and peat as we near Stornoway. The fishing port of Stornoway, the only town in the Outer Hebrides, is the islands' commercial capital and has the full range of banks, shops, hotels, pubs and restaurants.
- Day 5 Today is our driver's day off so we hire a local coach with driver and guide to discover the Isle of Lewis. We travel to the most northerly point, the Butt of Lewis and include visits to the ancient Carloway Broch and the 5000 year old stone circles of Callanish.
