

Central railway station, Ostend

Ostend Drinks Inclusive New Tour

Ostend is described as the cultural capital of the Belgian coast and is still a firm favourite with British visitors. It has grown from a humble fishing village into a lively and cosmopolitan seaside resort. There are sandy beaches, wide promenades; pedestrianised shopping streets and its active nightlife offers a choice of bars, clubs and cabarets. Ostend offers a good selection of fine restaurants to suite all tastes and pockets.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Depart South Wales travelling to Dover / Folkestone for the short sea / shuttle crossing to Calais continuing to Ostend arriving in time for dinner.

Day 2 At leisure in Ostend. Relax and explore your new surroundings.

Day 3 A visit to Brussels, a fascinating city of Flemish architecture, bustling traditional markets, fashionable boutiques and quaint cobbled streets that link impressive squares such as the beautiful Grand Place.

Day 4 We visit Bruges, one of the best preserved medieval cities in Northern Europe and often referred to as 'The Venice of the North' dream-like medieval streets. We continue to Sluis for a taste of Holland.

Day 5 We depart for Calais, where we have time to visit a local warehouse for some "Duty Free" shopping before crossing the channel continuing the journey to South Wales.

Antwerp

Antwerp & Brussels New Tour

Antwerp is the second largest city as well as the capital of the province of Flanders. Known as the diamond capital of the world this cosmopolitan down to earth city is full of fascinating architecture and historical institutions, complemented by a lively nightlife. Diamond shopping in Antwerp is a delight - personalised service, understated glamour and great value all in one of Europe's most romantic cities. The trademark cobbled roads, historical heritage, excellent bars and restaurants, diamonds, and chic shopping centres are enough for any tourist to be drawn to Antwerp. Beer lovers can have their own 'heady' time by trying all the typical Belgian flavours.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Depart South Wales travelling to Dover / Folkestone for the short sea / shuttle crossing to Calais continuing to Antwerp.

Day 2 At leisure in Antwerp. Our coach will take you to the Old Town where we have arranged a guided walking tour. The remainder of the day is at leisure. If diamonds really are a girl's best friend, than a lot of ladies will not leave out a visit to the diamond district around the Railway Station. This area is also the Jewish part of the city.

Day 3 A visit to Brussels, a fascinating city of Flemish architecture, bustling traditional markets, fashionable boutiques and quaint cobbled streets that link impressive squares such as the beautiful Grand Place.

Day 4 We depart for Calais, where we have time to visit a local warehouse for some "Duty Paid" shopping before crossing the channel continuing the journey to South Wales.
